

LONDON VOLLEYBALL ASSOCIATION

PRESIDENT

ROLE & DESCRIPTION

The President is an honorary role, who cannot hold any other office within the Association concurrently. The President will meet with the Chair on a regular basis to ensure that the concerns of the membership are shared.

ROLE & DESCRIPTION

- Be a key ambassador for volleyball and the Region
- Support the Chair and the Executive with the wisdom of their experience and by promoting the Executive management goals.
- Contribute to developing agendas for the organisation.
- Attend Executive Meetings when invited, to offer advice and guidance
- In agreement with the Executive:
 - Represent London Volleyball at formal occasions such as official functions and presentations.
 - Attend and present at domestic events, both competitions and awards.
- With other specialists, be part of the “Pool of Experts” called in to advise the Association on various matters.

SKILLS/QUALITIES REQUIRED

- Be aware of and in agreement with the goals of the organisation.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Public speaking skills.
- Take an interest in and respect the viewpoints of others

COMMITMENT

The President is elected for a 1 year term.

Revision History

24 Apr 20: Version 0.1